FARGO – The Cass County Sheriff's Office has opened its Tactical Operations Center.

The center will remain open 24 hours a day throughout flood efforts.

The public information line for the TOC is (701) 297-6000.

Sandbag deliveries throughout Cass County began on Monday, with the focus early this week south of town, specifically the river side of locations where clay levees will be constructed.

Sandbags can be picked up by the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the county Highway Department building, 1201 W. Main Ave., West Fargo. Hours for sandbag pick up may be altered depending on the need.
